Guardians in an uproar!

By Dana Busenbark

In book 4 of the Rise of the Arkansas Werewolves, we find Zane in Jonesboro with a couple of upcoming Guardians, getting their wings tattooed onto their backs. Something happened a few months earlier that is messing with Zane's inner wolf. He has a suspicion of what it is, but is not positive. He runs into an old friend, Skylar after breaking into a shed to have a hiding place where he can shift when his body is ready.

They catch up a bit after she finds him naked in her tool shed, and buys some clothes at the consignment shop for him. What happens when Zane cannot control his shifting. What does Skylar do to help him? How does she keep him hidden so that he does not break Pack Law? Who tries to attack her at Ava's house where she is working when she goes to check on things one night? Who is the person that is creating all the drugs that are being had in Jonesboro? What happens when the person behind the drugs purposefully infects Zane, kidnaps Skylar, and threatens to kill her and Zane? You really must read this book. It is incredible!

Another great read in this ARKANSAS WEREWOLVES series

By T

Another great read in this ARKANSAS WEREWOLVES series! Jodi doesn't disappoint with keeping you glued to your seat telling us about Zane, Barrett's right hand man with the Guardians and Skylar, his little sister's best friend that he hasn't seen in years. Zane is set on a task with 2 other Guardians and 2 newbies to get inked and goes MIA while Lucien and Jaxson try to cover for him with Barrett. Skylar finds a naked man in her tool shed and recognizes him from the start and helps him stay hidden while he's working out his issue. As Barrett is dealing with the other Alpha's and not hearing from Zane, he sends Damon in undercover to get to the bottom of things. We all know Damon isn't going anywhere without Ava, and Ava takes Granny. A great round-up of getting all the characters together in the end for a 'shit-storm'. Loved this and all the ones before.
