Chase Hunter is madly in love with a sexy, infuriating brat. Tristan Bryant, gorgeous, wealthy, and spoiled, has been at odds with Chase for years. Chase was perfectly fine to keep his distance, desiring his vicious rival from afar. That was, until Tristan got a boyfriend, and Chase became insanely jealous.

As sorcerers in training, it was nothing for Chase to concoct the glamour that allowed him to look exactly like Tristan's new boyfriend. But even when appearing like Randal Davis, Chase can't hold back his overwhelming desire. While Davis is sweet and romantic, Chase is rough, wild, and impassioned, and burns a fire in Tristan as crazed as their all-consuming rivalry.

Chase gives Tristan a night of intense passion neither of them will ever forget, but Tristan has his boyfriend's name on his lips, not Chase's. Can Chase find a way to show Tristan that it's really him he wants?

Very Good First Effort

By HP Reader

Word count: 37.900

I very much enjoyed this story. It's an 'enemies to lovers' plot, with magic having a supporting role. The magic is in the background, used to further the main plot along, and we're given some hints as to how this universe works, but the story is never weighed down with overly long details. There are several explicit sex scenes, but in good balance with the plot.

I enjoyed the first 2/3rds of the story best, when the rivalry between the two main characters, Chase and Tristan, kept me wondering what they were going to do to each other next. Once Chase and Tristan resolved their issues, I wasn't as interested in them anymore – it was the constant battle between the two which made things fun for me. But overall, for a first effort I thought this turned out rather well, and I'd like to read more in this universe.

The only thing I'd point out is that it reads much like an Harry Potter fanfiction

Hot and sexy, Chase and Tristan almost burn the book out of your hands. Their relationship starts firey and stays that way. Push and pull, inevitably ending up in bed together. It doesn't rush and it doesn't apologize.

The only thing I'd point out is that it reads much like an Harry Potter fanfiction. This is a good story, but definitely reads as a fanfiction.
