A very good read!

By TexasTaxMan

Purchased on advice of a pastor friend - this is a good read. Actually purchased this book plus another one - "the Circle Maker" - "If" is the more interesting read - at least in my opinion. The author gives you the opportunity and means by which you can take the word "if" and change it into a more positive action - I like that. But the real work here is you get to become more intimate with God and I love that part of the book. This is an excellent book for Christians - if you will, maybe even a learning experience.

If I only had a brain...

By CactusPete

Lot of fluff here. No new ideas, just trite homilies recycled in a book with very large print. Read the bible instead.
