Outstanding Resource for Teachers!!

By Lynn A. Wicker

As an teacher and school administrator for a total of 30 years, I am delighted to see a resource like Learn In Rhythm. Over the past number of years, many school districts have cut funding for the arts programs in schools due to budget constraints. Learn in Rhythm provides an exceptional resource for classroom teachers to incorporate differentiated lesson plans across multiple grade levels in cross curricular ways. Students should never be deprived of meaningful experiences in the arts and Learn In Rhythm provides a wonderful toolbox for teachers to integrate in their classroom curriculum.
