Great book!

By Smurfette

I received my book on yesterday and I was finished with it in 45 minutes. This book is so powerful and I was able to relate to several situations discussed. I cried, I smiled because I could feel the author's spirit come alive in her words. Great book!!!

For the lover in you!

By LaBellaEsq

I've read both of the poetry books written by this author. Both are undoubtedly filled with Christian love, the kind that makes even a non believer like myself understand fully what Agape Love stands for. While you can see the author's faith in God as her Creator and the ultimate source of love in her writings, she fortunately doesn't come across as preachy or judgmental allowing you to relate to her love and tragedies as a human. In conclusion, I recommend both books in this series, Poetry in Infancy to anyone who believes in love, is passionate about love, or even needs a reminder that true love does exist even through life's storms.
